The Outdoor Education Center

Composed of 1,500 wooded acres, the Yale Outdoor Education Center (OEC) is nestled on the south shore of pristine mile-long Powers Lake. The OEC is located in East Lyme, Connecticut, only 42 miles east of New Haven off I-95 North.

Visiting

Come for the day or every day all summer! By the day, everyone pays $10, Children 5 and under are free; just show your Yale or YNHH ID at the check-in station. Seasonal memberships are sold from the New Haven office or by mail.

Swimming, Fishing & Boating

A large, H-shaped aluminum dock provides ideal swimming conditions in the lake, with lifeguards on duty. Nearby, a boat/fishing dock houses a small fleet of rowboats, kayaks and paddleboards which are free of charge. Lifejackets ("PFDs") are available (or bring your own) and required.

Picnicking and Recreation

The OEC offers a lakeside grove with picnic tables and grills, grass and sand beaches, campfire ring, clay volleyball court, small basketball court, recreation cabin with table tennis. Please bring your own equipment. Take proper precautions against biting insects including mosquitos and ticks.

Cabins & Campsites

Cabins and campsites are closed Summer 2021
