The Outdoor Education Center

Composed of 1,500 wooded acres, the Yale Outdoor Education Center (OEC) is nestled on the south shore of pristine mile-long Powers Lake. The OEC is located in East Lyme, Connecticut, only 42 miles east of New Haven off I-95 North.

Visiting

Come for the day or every day all summer! By the day, everyone pays $10, Children 5 and under are free; just show your Yale or YNHH ID at the check-in station. Seasonal memberships are sold from the New Haven office or by mail.

Cabins & Campsites

Nine rustic, lakeside cabins and 8 secluded campsites are available for summer rental.* Cabins have a picnic table, grill, electricity, refrigerator, and small deck overlooking the lake; campsites include a picnic table and grill. A screened 12' x 16' Adirondack-style campsite shelter is available. Shower house for people staying overnight only. Cabin/campsite rentals require annual membership or non-member fee.

Swimming, Fishing & Boating

A large, H-shaped aluminum dock provides ideal swimming conditions in the lake, with lifeguards on duty. Nearby, a boat/fishing dock houses a small fleet of rowboats, kayaks, canoes, and paddleboards, which are free of charge. Lifejackets are available and required.

Picnicking and Recreation

The OEC offers a lakeside grove with picnic tables and grills, grass and sand beaches, campfire ring, clay volleyball court and small basketball court.

Take proper precautions against biting insects including mosquitos and ticks.

Group Party Facilities

Ideal for groups, the lakeside Pavilion is a large, open-air structure with oversize picnic tables. A grill with serving area is connected via a breezeway. A new 20' x 24' deck with seating and lake view fronts the pavilion. The Gazebo is available for small groups of up to 25 people. The Gazebo is located at the water's edge, and has a large grill and picnic tables nearby. These facilities must be reserved.
